User service:
Manages things like the users profile and their settings

Channel service:
Responsible for how bizcord is structured and managing where communication can happen.

Message service:
Manages message handling

Engagement service:
Manages user interactions with messages and other content.

Realtime service:
Handles real-time communication between multiple users, such as voice chat.

Notification service:
Sends notifications for new messages, replies, mentions to the affected users.

